

Australia and New Zealand Police Games Federation FEDERATION BIOGRAPHIES

Retired Senior Sergeant 1st Class Allan VILCINS

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated
Chairman

The National Police Medal The National Medal 2nd Clasp. The South Australia Police Diligent and Ethical Service Medal. (40 year service)

Has competed in the Australasian Police & Emergency Services (AP&ES) Games since 1991 in the sport of “clay target” along with other sports. Previously the Executive Officer of the 2005 AP&ES Games also incepted and Executive Officer of the South Australia Police & Emergency Services Games which commenced in 2002. Competition includes attendance and success at the World Police & Fire Games, International Police & Fire Games, the International Law Enforcement Olympics, Australasian Police & Emergency Services Games and SA Police & Emergency Services Games.

Past Director of Operations and Administration of the AP&ES Games
Life Member of the South Australia Police Sports Federation Inc.
Life Member of the Australasian Police & Services Clay Target Federation
Director 2004 - 2007 of the World Police & Fire Games Adelaide 2007.
Secretary of the South Australia Police Sports Federation Inc.
Advance Diploma Tourism and Diploma Event Management.

Diane FINLAY

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated
Director of Administration

Diane was first nominated to the board as the Director of Operations in 2010 and then to Director of Administration in 2012.

She first became involved with the Australian and New Zealand Police Games Federation back in 2002 as the Registration and Games Office Manager for the Perth 2004 Games and now the Games Administrator for the 2018 Games in Mandurah.

Diane has competed in at the Games in Perth, Adelaide, Coffs Harbour, Tasmania, New Zealand, Melbourne and Sunshine Coast in Track & Field, Netball, Indoor Rowing and Tug of War.

Diane is actively involved with the WA Police Sports Federation as a member and Secretary and now Director of Administration since 2006.

Diane joined WA Police in 1996 and has been in various administration roles for the past 21 years and recipient of the Western Australia Police Service Medal.

Holds a Diploma of Freelance Journalism, Statement of Attainment in HR Management along with a Cert II in Business.

Diane's role is to work closely with her fellow Directors and Games Hosts and is responsible for providing the Federation with secretarial, administrative and clerical services to support the effective and efficient management of the Federation.

Detective Chief Inspector Ben JANSSEN

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated

Director of Finance

Involved in Police Sport since 1982 as a player and later an administrator.

ANZPGF Delegate since 2004

Chairman of 2008 APES Games Committee

Current Secretary of the New South Wales Police Council of Sport

Current Manager of the Southern Districts (Sydney) Rugby Union First Grade team.

Life Member and Patron of the Australasian Police Basketball Association.

Life Member of the NSW Police Basketball Club

Sergeant Adrian KELTIE

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated

Director of Operations

Assistant Manager Melbourne 2014 Australasian Police & Emergency Services Games. 25 Years' Service Victoria Police, Currently Operational Supervisor Transit Safety Division. Committee Member Victoria Police Games Federation.

Level 2 AFL Coaching Accreditation. Life time of playing/coaching AFL including 20 years coaching senior level winning 5 premierships.

Bronze Level Coach Swimming Australia

3 Years swim coach Nunawading Swimming Club including Boys Manager National Age Championships.

Acting Senior Sergeant Jeremy PETERSEN

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated

Director of Marketing

The National Police Medal

The Western Australia Police Service Medal – 15 years

Joined the WA Police in 2000, serving in both Regional & Metropolitan stations. Appointed as Detective in 2007 serving at Metropolitan Detective offices and the Arson Squad until promoted to Sergeant in 2012.

Held a committee position on the Western Australia Police Sports Federation since 2007, and been the Treasurer/Director of Finance since 2010.

Appointed Games Manager for the 2018 Australasian Police & Emergency Services Games in Mandurah. Participated in Australasian Police & Emergency Services (AP&ES) Games since 2004, in various sports including Indoor Cricket, Swimming, Mixed Netball, Beach Volleyball and Darts.

Member of Western Australia Police Cricket Club (Numbats) capped player #64, participated in 3 Australia & New Zealand Police Cricket Championships (2009, 2015, and 2016).

Master of Leadership & Management.

Brett SHIELDS

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated
Director of Sport

Holder of the Bronze Medal for meritorious service

Long Service and Good Conduct medal

Chairman of New Zealand Police Sport (NZPS)

Sporting Bio: Has competed in the Australasian Police & Emergency Services (AP&ES) Games since 1996 (Wanganui) in the sport of Golf along with other sports such as Soccer (Football) and Cricket.

Been an active sportsman during his 27 years police service across a wide range of sports.

Was part of the organising committee for the 2012 Games and assisted with logistics and competitor movements during the event.

Been a member of the NZPS for his entire service and has held positions on district Sports committees right through to his current position as the Chairman of NZPS.

Sergeant Brett PRICE

Australia & New Zealand Police Games Federation (ANZPGF) Incorporated
Director of Sponsorship

Games Manager, 2016 Australasian Police and Emergency Services Games, Sunshine Coast, Qld.

Games Manager, 2009 Queensland Police and Emergency Services Games.

Member of the Queensland Police Sporting Association (20 years)

30 years' service Queensland Police Service, currently Ethical Standards Command. 10 years' Major Event Planning Unit.

Player and Committee Member of Queensland Police Cricket Association and Queensland Police AFL Club. Attended national carnivals since 2004 (cricket) and 2011 (AFL).

Founding and current President of the Law Enforcement Torch Run Queensland charity supporting Special Olympics

Currently play Masters AFL and Over 35's soccer. Coached 4 years junior soccer at Samford Rangers Football Club, Brisbane

Life time of sport – AFL, Cricket, Outrigger canoeing, Athletics, Triathlon, Soccer.